

BLESSED SACRAMENT LUTHERAN CHURCH

“Consequently the true worship of God is to kiss this Son, that is, to adore Him in such a way that you see nothing in heaven and earth aside from Him and believe in nothing else than Him.” Martin Luther, LW 12:87

Dear Saints,

Third Sunday in Lent 7 Mar. 2021

Oculi—The Third Sunday in Lent. The name comes from the first word in Latin of the introit of the day (taken from Psalm 25): Oculi mei semper ad Dominum – “My eyes are always on God.” The season of Lent trains us to keep our eyes on the One who brings help. Oculi Sunday is a strong reminder that our faith is not merely an auditory one, but also a faith bound up with visual confirmation. It was the eyewitnesses of the life, death, and resurrection of the Son of God that lends great credibility to the truth about Jesus. Yes, faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word of Christ, but it was that Christ who was Immanuel—God with us—who is so compelling.

I’ll be preaching from Jeremiah this Sunday, so take note of the connections with Jesus our Lord. The Prophet Jeremiah was charged with speaking evil when he spoke the Word of the Lord. So also, Jesus is accused of doing evil when in fact He is doing good. He casts out a demon from a mute man so that he is able to speak (St. Luke 11.14–28). But some said Jesus did this by the power of Beelzebub, Satan. Like Pharaoh of old, their hearts were hard (Exodus 8.16–24). They did not recognize the finger of God, the power of the Holy Spirit at work in and through Jesus.

Jesus is the Stronger Man who overcomes the strong man. He takes the devil’s armor of sin and death and destroys it from the inside out by the holy cross. He exorcizes and frees us by water and the Word. We were once darkness, but now we are light in Christ the Lord (Ephesians 5.1–9). As children of light, our tongues are loosed to give thanks to Him who saved us. And so it is with the Lord, He only wrestles with the children whom he loves. For He Himself lets Himself be pinned to a cross, that your prayers would never be ignored.
